From Salr Lake -Advices from Salt Lake state that the editor of the Valley Tan, the Gentile paper rinted there, has rec ived a warning from some of the dignituries of the Mermon Church. In an editorial article in the Tan of the 25.b ult, while com. menting on the I residant's message, the following passage occurred:

passage occurred:

The President, wi boul the lugerulerses is retract a mistaken opinion, or to admit the error of a lina of policy or expurshed, passes over in eilerce the evidence of continued insubordioation which exists in this Territory, and the insecurity of life here, to such as full within the ban of the ceclesiantical hierarchy, that rules with more than desputic lyranny those that profess faith in the ridiculous and blastophus and contents as the contents of the c anguage, the clior of the Tan was culled upon by an Ed: in the Church, one W. C. Steines, who it can denounced him in utilizate terms but who he clior deemed neworthy of any other treatment than coolempt. He was also waited upon by one of the civil efficiels, who left him with the official assurance that he would omforting assurance that they would not any long rube responsible for his safety." The editor thus della his own story:

LORD DERBY'S WARNING TO THE FRENCH EMPERON -The following warning worlds to the French Emperor, which possess a sleep rignificance at the present conjure ure, form the conclusion of Lord Derby's admira: In address in the Housa of Lords, in the delacts on Lord Normarby's motion, for an address to Her Majesty, protesting against the annexation of Savoy and Nice to France, and praying Her Majesty to direct her government to use their best and savors to prevent the transfer of those territories to France: ritories to France:

SATURDAY, MARCH 3 1860. PRENTICE ON H. W. DAVIS —For the henefit of those woo openly or escretly approve the treachery of Henry Win'er Davis, we give an extract from Prentica's paper, the Louisville Journal:

"Mr. Pecungtor, the Black Republican cattldate, still lecked twe votes of an election. He might even yet have been defected. In that emerger cy, Heory Winter Davis, an American member of Congress thom the city of Beltimore, representing a slaveholding district, batrayed, basely be trayed, a constituency upon when he had been thrust by the most villatious frauds ever perpetrated—betrayed them into the hands of their enemies; betrayed them without an apology or sign of rebelrayed them without an apology or sign of re

Precisely the contrary. Wa have contented ourselves with frankly lementing the whole thing. Ws would have had the Conservatives in Congress separate themselves sharply at the outse from both the Republicane and the Democrats, and breek their ranks and take to Indian fighting, soms going one way and some another, we do not eccount it a matter either of amazement or of especial reproach, though certainly of regret, that, in the final engagement, a couple of their rumber sought chalter in the support of a moderate Republican like Pennington. Nothing else could have been reusonably expected. We would not have voted for Penningtor; neither would we have voted for Millson or Ilamilton or McCleruand; but we can easily conceive bow, when the Conservative phalanx was broken, ethers might do either without the chame of perfidy. The great error consisted in hreaking up the Conservative phalanx; and the

The war of Spain with Morocco shows som tokens of drawing near its close. It is high time, and sn:h appeare to be the general opinion of the En opean world. It is sald that the French Emperor, seconded by England, and perbaps by other European powere, has opened negotiatione wit Spain to induce her to terminate the war with Me recco. We are glad to hear of this interpositio We trust that it will be successful. We think the Spain hegan the war najustly, and she cartning has waged it ingloriously. Doubtless the Moor were the nggressors. But their Emperor accaded to the first demands of Spain for eatisfaction. The Spanish coldiers have shown that they possess bravery; but their bravery has been turned to little account. Their progress has been diegrees fully slow. If they do not advance more rapidly than they have done, the young could of sixty one entertain any proposale for peace, until he had If he does not change his mird, Spain will find that many of them are made of stuff which rots beneath the soil of Morceco. We sincerely trust that this unbeppy war, which promises good to nobedy, mey harder to hold, and so calls of the Senatenni of epsedily be terminated.

In fact, the Opposition in this State proclaim themselves nullifiers in case of emergencies that are appreheuded. The editor of the Journal prefers to call them revolutionists, that he may he able to use some dictionary words—such as inextinguishable, italianable, &c; but the purpose of what they propose is to "resist usurpation"—that is, to prevent the execution of laws they may judge intolerable. That is mullification, and the purpose should give name to the deed.—Low. Democrat. That is not "nullification," as every schoolhog
